Dan Gurlitz, President

Professional History

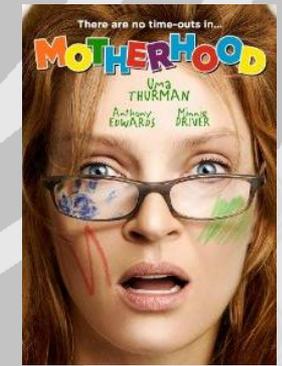

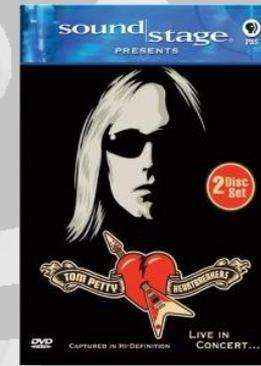

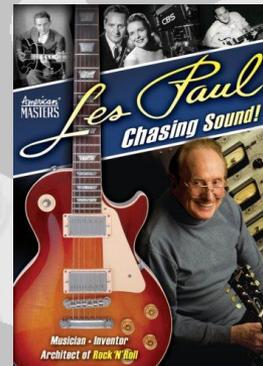

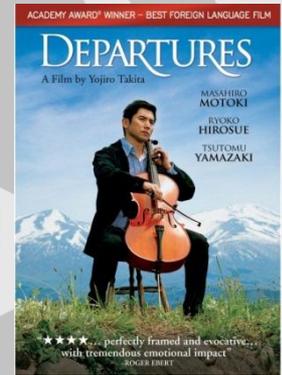

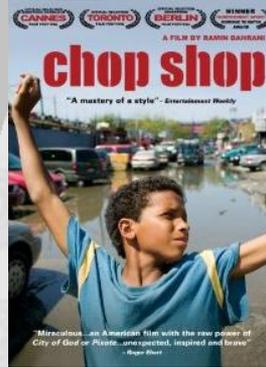

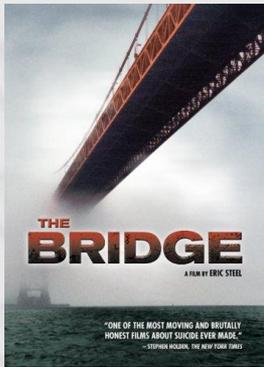

Soundview Media Partners Founding Member, Dan Gurlitz, entered the entertainment distribution business in 1984. Beginning in advertising, his career has spanned over 30 years and includes over 13 years in sales followed by 18 years in senior management, all within rapid-growth, independent environments.

Dan has held sales positions with Republic Pictures, Forum Home Video (MCEG), Fox Hills Video / Media Home Entertainment and Wood Knapp & Company. He has held the senior management positions of Vice President of Unapix Entertainment, Vice President/General Manager Winstar Communications (Fox Lorber / Wellspring Media), Senior Vice President/General Manager, Video for Entertainment One U.S. (formerly Koch Entertainment) and President, TDC Entertainment/The Disinformation Company.

From boutique labels to large aggregators, Dan has managed the sales and distribution of literally thousands of titles: feature films, documentaries, international cinema/art house, fitness, children's programming, TV-on-DVD and more. With a deep industry knowledge-base that includes divisional P&L responsibilities, Dan maintains a broad understanding of all of the processes involved in bringing filmed programs to market.

From license agreement development to product packaging and marketing; from program and film conception to retail and online deployment, Dan is a team-building executive who has developed long-standing loyalties and deep industry relationships.

Accolades (found on LinkedIn)

“I selected Dan's business, Soundview Media Partners, to represent a long-form documentary of mine in North America. I am both delighted and impressed by how quickly Dan brokered a distribution deal for us. In securing a great end-result, he acted with honesty, professionalism and patience at every stage. We found each other via LinkedIn and I can highly recommend Soundview Media Partners to other producers and professionals in the network.” - Nicholas Jones, Owner Quanta Films, Ltd. -

“I have known and worked with Dan for over 25 years. During that time he has always demonstrated deep and extensive product knowledge and shown a professionalism and work ethic that is second to none. His contacts are broad and deep and reflect the excellent reputation and integrity he brings to every project he manages. I enthusiastically recommend him as a content strategist and distribution expert.” – Bill Sondheim, President, Cinedigm

“Dan helped us refine our vision and has taken us to the next step of filmmaking.” – Mike Purcell, 6Minor Films

“Dan Gurlitz taught me everything about the music business 20 years ago and since then has been sharpening his skills in some of the toughest business environments out there. The man is honest, well respected and a consummate professional.”

- Duncan Hutchinson, Managing Director Blackheart Records

“Dan was like a mentor to me. Initially I was worried about my inexperience in the sales side of filmmaking, but Dan was very informative -- which helped me manage expectations -- and patient, when he repeatedly explained jargons and percentages. In the end, not only did he sell my film but I also got very valuable lessons in the art of making a deal without feeling like an idiot.”

– Maria Cabardo, Macab Films

“Dan recognised the value of my product and was swift to find us a major outlet in the US and Canada. Throughout it's been a real pleasure working with him, he's unflappable, conscientious and a go-getter and knows his market very well. He's a rare find in this industry and we've had many laughs along the way.” – Diane Hinds, The Entertainment Bureau
